THE steamer Australia will be due here from the colonies on Monday. Passengen traffic between the islands has been stopped until further notice. Most of the small-pox cases reported are very light and the patients are doing well.

THE meeting of the Hawaiian Mission Childrens' Society for this month will be omitted. PINAPORE airs are heard at all hours of the day and evening, sung, hummed and whistled. Two new buildings are now being erected on the reef for the accommodation of small-pox patients. An odorless excavator arrived on the A. P. Jordan last week, for the Minister of the Interior, To-Dir, the seventh anniversary of the accession of King Kalakaua to the Throne, is a national holiday.

circuit of Hawaii, taking freight only. On her return she will lay up for repairs and will not leave Honolulu again until March 1st. FROM the mortuary report of the Board of Health for January, 1881, we learn that there were only 40 deaths. This is only about half the death rate for the same mouth in the two previous years.

THERE has been very little business in the Police Court this week. The epidemic has a salutary effect upon crime. On Saturday last, and on Thursday and Friday of this week, there were no cases called. Dr. J. K. SMITH was the only passenger permitted to leave town for the other Islands this week. This exception was made because of his being a Government physician for Kauai, and his services are needed there. Some of the passengers who arrived in port by the Likelike on her last trip, did not come ashore on account of the quarantine regulations, fearing that they would not be allowed to leave. They re-turned by her on Wednesday.

Orrecens have been placed by Marshal Parke at the Nunanu Pali, at Moanalua and at Niu, to ex-amine all persons coming to or going from Homo-lulu, with instructions to detain all that have any appearance of being affected with small-pox. THERE was a heavy rainfall between 7 and 9 A. M a Sunday, and in the corresponding hours in ic evening, but with a high barometer. On fonday night a tremendous thunder storm came a with a deluge of rain and a barometer ,25 bears its former level. Tuesday, southerly wind, /ednesday, west to south-west, and fine.

WITH all due deference to the Road Superviso e would suggest that some attention be paid to a unrice a street. In its present condition it is a lass of recking filth, and no doubt charged with a laria and infection of the worst kind. Unnecess try visita to that locality are to be avoided as urefully as one would shun the neighborhood of se yellow flag.

The Chinaman who recently made his escape om custody, and who was under sentence for ten ars at hard labor was re-captured at Koolau last cek and was brought back to Honolulu. On ionday morning he committed suicide in his cell a hanging himself with strips torn from his lanket. An inquest was held before Coroner syton, and a jury of six Chinamen returned a ordict of "death at his own hands."

Not the slightest distingation has been shown, which is something aw for Honoksa.

Ir such crowded meetings as that which was held

If such crowded meetings as that which was held to Kaumakapili on Saturday last are to be held om time to time until a favorible answer to the etitions is received, it is not out of place to sugest that a permanent building be crected on the sef for the said purpose; but on no account would such crowded gatherings be allowed to seemble in the most densely populated part of a city, especially considering it has been deemed ecessary to close public schools and also places f public entertainment. Tor strictures lately passed upon the police by he Chief Justice, in which he particularly alluded of the habilizent of prisoners as compared with hose of free citizens, has had the effect of proucing a decided change in the general appearance if those who fill the ranks of the condemned. Soon after the arrival of the steamer Kilanea How last Saturday, Mr. H. Cornwell and others, having heard that the Board of Health were going to prohibit people from leaving Honolulu for the other islands, chartered the steamer and she sailed for Kahului, Maui, on the same day. A few others beside Mr. Cornwell's party left on her. The Kilauca Hou returned to Honolulu on Monday morning. When on her way to Kahului she spoke the Likelike, and some of the passengers of that steamer, learning of the quarantine regulations, boarded the Kitauca Hou and returned to Maui.

Tax following is the record of the proceedings at the Police Court for the week: Frank Marous attempting to leave the Kingdom without a pass port, pleaded guilty, and was fined $25 and $3 costs. Chin Ong, having opium in his possession; case continued. Kaualu, k., charged with violating sec. 24 of chap. 59 of the Penal Code, requiring householders and others to inform the authorities of cases of small-pox coming under their observa-tion; nolle prosequi entered by prosecution. Kahui, k., and Kaai, w., adultery, pleaded guilty; the for-mer was fined $30 and $2.50 costs, and the latter $15 and $2.50 costs. Ed Barton, drunkenness, pleaded guilty, and was fined $5 and $1 costs. M.

Ox Saturday last a meeting was convened a Kaumakapili to discuss particularly the present action of the Board of Health regarding the small-pox that has been recently introduced into Honolulu. Early in the afternoon, Mr. John Sheldon, and the Honorable S. K. Kasi mounted the rostrum at the fish market, inciting the natives to flock to at the fish market, inciting the natives to flock together and join in the demonstration. Shortly after seven o'clock the church began to fill. Mr. Kaulukoa was appointed chairman. Mr. John Sheldon read the resolutions which had been drawn up, and Mr. Kaai seconded them. The whole of the proceedings were conducted in the Hawaiian language, and frequent bursts of applause, emanating from interested parties, amongst whom were the ex-Minister of Finance, Rev. Kuaea, and the Honorable J. Keau, greeted the speakers when denonucing the present Ministry and the Board of Health. A Committee of twelve was appointed to wait upon H. R. H. the Princess Regent, but amidst such a multitude of voices that it was impossible for a listener to ascertain on whom the honor was bestowed. THE Likelike left last, Wednesday to make the

DR. J. WEIR, who arrived here from San Francisco last Saturday on the H. W. Almy, brought with him for persons in Honolula, nine horses, ten mules and nine cows, and notwithstanding the stormy weather experienced, all are looking well. He also brought a young stallion, of which we clip the following notice from the San Francisco Spirit of the Times of January Sh: "Dr. John Weir has purchased of H. W. Seale the young trotting stallion Stridesway, and has shipped him to the Sandwich Islands. He is a fine specimen of the highly bred trotter, being over sixteen hands, though not four years old until Spring, and is a very truly formed colt. His sire Elmo was not only a trotter himself, but begets trotters, and adds size and style, which is now so much looked after. Stridesway is a handsome bay, with the speedy conformation his breeding would naturally lead us to expect. His dam is Lady Comstock by Norfolk, his grandam Mary Butte by Belmont. Elmo is by Mohawk, a son of Long Island Blackhawk, and his dam was by Sir Richard. The people in Honolulu are somewhat skeptical, having been imposed upon in regard to the pedigrees of animals which have been sent to them, but they can rest assured that this is correct, and substantiated in every point by statements which are worthy of credit." cisco last Saturday on the H. W. Almy, brought Last Monday evening the California Theatre Company produced "Woodcock's Little Game," at the new theatre. All of the actors sustained at the new theatre. All of the actors sastained their parts well notwithstanding that the audience was small, owing to the inclemency of the weather and the alarm occasioned by the spread of the small pox. The performance concluded with the laughable farce, "My Precious Betsy," which kept the audience in a roar till the curtain went down for the last time. Mr. Crosbie, as Mr. Bobtail, was of course the funny-man of the play. Miss Long made a capital Nancy Muddle, and Miss Allen as Mrs. Wigtail, Miss. Wilkes as Mr. Bobtail, Mr. Wilson as Mr. Langford and Mr. Francoeur as Mr. Wigtail, represented their characters to perfection, and much better than one would think possible to be done when incumbered with such awful names. But what's in a name when we have such actors? Owing to the prevalence of the small-pox "My Precious Betsy" is the last production, for a time at least, of this Company. We regret that circumstances have arisen making it necessary for the public to forego the pleasure of their performances, and that they have to retire just at a time when the public have learned to appreciate them.

Ma. Rick, who met with an accident recently at Kapsa while at work on a flume, died on December 51st, much regretted by all who knew him. Tun Koloa plantation is taking off a large crop, and in an expeditions manner. The average quantity of sugar being manufactured daily is over twelve tons. On Thursday of last week 17,000 gallons of juice was the result of eight hours' and thirty minutes' grinding.

JAMES H. K. KAIWI, District Justice of Kawaihau, was brought before the Circuit Court on a complaint of having altered the testimony of witnesses in the case of the King vs. Lindermann. No trial was had, but the case will probably come up for trial at the next term of Court.

For Lowing is the weather record for the month

Following is the weather record for the month of January, as kept by Dr. J. W. Smith at Koloa: Rainfall, 2.5 inches. Thermometer, lowest at sunris 52°; average minimum thermometer 62.2°. Thermometer, highest at 2 P. M. 78°; average maximum thermometer 71°. Aneroid barometer, 6200 feet elevation.) highest 29.70°; lowest 29.076. Westerly wind prevailed 14 days, northerly wind 15 days, and variable 2 days. Tire Circuit Court, which was to have been convened February 1st, was opened and adjourned by Sheriff Wilcox from day to day until the judges arrived, bad weather detaining them at Honolulu. They arrived on the 3d and business then commenced. Native jury cases were disposed of that day. On Friday the 4th, the foreign juries disposed of five cases and were dismissed at 7:30 o'clock that evening. Court adjourned for the term on Saturday the 5th.

MAUI NOTES. We were misinformed last week in regard to the small-pox being at Kahului. There are no cases Tuz brigantine Consuelo arrived at Kabului from San Francisco on the 1st and the schooner Rosario sailed for the Coast the same day. The latter took four passengers.

CAPTAIN T. K. CLARK of Kipahulu, who is now in town, reports the mill about ready to begin grinding and says that injury to flumes by the late winds was slight, and that no material damage was done to the cane. THE storm on the Island during the fore part of

The storm on the Island during the fore part of last week did a great deal of damage, blowing smoke-stacks off the mills and wrecking a number of buildings. The house in which Mr. Wilcox was living was picked up and landed in a kalopatch and was completely demolished. One that was being erected for Mr. G. E. Boardman was so badly injured that it is being rebuilt. It was nearly finished. Other buildings were injured and much damage was done to trees. HAWAII NOTES. TITUS COAN of Hilo was eighty years old on Wednesday the 2d of February, and a number of his friends and parishioners called on him to congratulate him. For a man of so many years he is very active. For the past two weeks (previous to February 1st) a severe Kona wind prevailed at Honokaa and destroyed a considerable amount of property in that district. It unroofed the Honokaa Sugar

Company's trash-house, and entirely destroyed tha trash-house at the Panuhau mill, leveling it to the ground. Several other frame buildings and numerous grass-houses have fallen victims to the January 29th, as to prevent the Likelike from landing her boats at Kawalhae. There is scarcely a field of cane in that district but has suffered to a The following from a lady patient at the hospi tal on the reef, refutes the statement made by the

of victims of the small-pox, and a translation of which we give in to-day's Press : Honolulu, Feb. 10th, 1881.

Editor Saturday Parss:—Intelligence has reached us this morning concerning the ill treatment of small-pox patients. I sincerely assure you that the report is all false, and may have been reported by some friends of the sick; but certainly the patients could never say they were ill-treated, for they have received better treatment than expected. Little did we think of receiving as much comfort here, like that at our homes, but it has been a great blessing. Although separated from home and friends, still we have found the dear pleasure of allowing ourselves a happy and comfortable home. We all join with one heart in thanking Mr. Dayton and other friends who have kindly offered their services to ald and do all they can for the sick. We have all we desire and more too at that. We are all very sorry that this report has been spread around, but we truly hope our friends will not listen to the silly gossipers, but take the word of a well-known patient. With much love and sincere gratitude,

I remain yours respectfully,
